Page 7: Your views on the proposal

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal to replace the current 30mph default speed limit on restricted roads with a 20mph limit.

Fully opposed

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal to replace the current 30mph default speed limit on restricted roads with a 20mph limit.

Please explain the reasons for your response

We live in a era where time is money, reducing how long it takes people to get from A-B is not only going to be harmful to the economy, but also the environment. Vehicles are going to have to slow down causing a build up of traffic increasing emissions. Also instead of spending the tax payers money on refitting 30 signs everywhere and the public awareness campaign that will have to follow so everybody knows they are breaking the speed limit go and fix the current roads in these zones where potholes and poorly painted lines are causing havock. Alternatively invest in more schemes such as free parking for car sharers or car share lanes in the most heavily congested areas.

Q2. Could the aims of this proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

Yes (if so, please explain below)

Please explain the reasons for your response

Better driver training, manadatory over 60 testing and as aforementioned better incentives to use public transport or car sharing

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of the proposal?

None really as people won't slow down and then they are wasting policing time to enforce these new "laws"

Q4. What do you think would be the main disadvantages, if any, of the proposal?

All the previous statements

Q5. What other measures do you think would be needed to maximise compliance with the new national 20mph speed limit on restricted roads, for example in relation to advertising signage and police enforcement.

None this is a gross waste of funds and time of a already stripped police force. I don't want a penny of my money to go into this act
