Page 7: Your views on the proposal

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal to replace the current 30mph default speed limit on restricted roads with a 20mph limit.

Fully opposed

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal to replace the current 30mph default speed limit on restricted roads with a 20mph limit.

Please explain the reasons for your response

It's pointless to have a blanket 20mph limit in operation. Good idea around schools and places where motorists will see the sense in this, but to have a blanket 20mph limit you risk drivers not seeing the sense in the limit so not adhering to it. If you are so concerned about the environment, why not have smart traffic lights that don't have cars sitting idling at a red light at midnight.

Q2. Could the aims of this proposal be better delivered in another way (without a Bill in the Scottish Parliament)?

No

Q3. What do you think would be the main advantages, if any, of the proposal?

There are no advantages to the proposal, the 20mph limit should be targeted to particular area such as schools etc. A blanket limit is far too blunt a tool.

Q4. What do you think would be the main disadvantages, if any, of the proposal?

No Response

Q5. What other measures do you think would be needed to maximise compliance with the new national 20mph speed limit on restricted roads, for example in relation to advertising signage and police enforcement.

The best way for people to comply with any law is to gain the support of those people in the first place. Drink driving is unacceptable only because public opinion deems it unacceptable, not because it's against the law.
You must have the support of the general public in the first place for compliance.
