Check to see if you need Planning Permission to operate your Short Term Let see guidance for businesses

Check to see if a Building Warrant is required to operate your Short Term or Holiday Let as a non-domestic use (more than 6 visitors) and/or alterations to the property. For details see building warrants advice and the Local Authority Building Standards Scotland

Ensure you have a valid legal contract with the visitors staying in the property.

Check the implications of renting your property for your mortgage and tax purposes and check your title deeds for any conditions that would prevent the property being used for a Short Term Let

Ensure you have the correct landlord insurance in place.

Ensure you have an Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) that has been issued in the last 10 years. EPC Info

Safety at the property

If there are gas appliances in the property ensure you have an up to date Gas Safety Certificate (provided by an approved Gas Safe Engineer within the last 12 months). Gas Safety Certificate

The Repairing Standard sets the condition and maintenance standards which registered landlords must adhere to, this is the suggested level of safety for holiday and Short Term Let property. For more details CLICK HERE.

Ensure the property has satisfactory provision for detecting and warning of fires and that let properties have smoke and heat detectors. All detectors should be interlinked and mains wired with battery back-up. For details CLICK HERE.

Provide an Electrical Installation Condition Report (EICR). As part of the EICR you must ensure all portable electrical appliances you supply have undergone Portable Appliance Testing. For more details CLICK HERE.

All soft furnishings provided must meet current safety standards. CLICK HERE

Supply adequate Carbon Monoxide (CO detector[s]) to be fitted in each room where there is a gas appliance. For more details CLICK HERE

Carry out risk assessments for Legionnaire's disease, and implement any necessary measures. For more details CLICK HERE

Managing the visitors

Provide visitors with a list of instructions and rules ensuring visitors are safe, antisocial behaviour and disruption to neighbours is kept to an absolute minimum and that the property and surrounding environs are respected.

All visitors to the property should be met in person by either the landlord or an agent working for the landlord. They should be given keys to the property (and any stair door/entry system) they should also be given instructions on how to access the property without disturbing neighbours.

All neighbours of the let property should be given contact details of the owner or agent, including a 24 hour number, to which any noise or antisocial behaviour can be reported.

Collate a list of contact details for appropriate contacts to give to the visitors should something go wrong during their visit. For more details CLICK HERE

Consider joining a scheme or association for ongoing guidance and support such as ASSC or SAL

Anyone offering Short Term Lets should ensure that they keep their knowledge of Consumer Protection legislation up to date. Guidance on such matters can be found HERE

Waste and Recycling: Ensure that appropriate measures are put in place for recycling and waste collection. Check the Council's bins and recycling pages for details. Trade waste information is available here

Other considerations

Check if you need to register as a landlord or obtain a HMO licence. Registration is required for all properties let to one or more individuals as their main or only address and mandatory licensing applies to houses or flats occupied by three or more unrelated people who share bathroom or kitchen facilities as their permanent address.
